

Entrepreneur of the Month

Alumni Victoria Patterson

Vee's Place
Old-Fashioned
Bakery

About

Vee's Place Old-Fashioned Bakery is a bakery where delicious treats are lovingly crafted in small batches, just like Grandmother used to make. Each item is made from scratch using all natural ingredients. Vee's Place offers a variety of baked goods made fresh daily.

When did you start your business?

March 2019

Degree

BSBA - Management 2018

Hometown

Franklinville, NC

Favorite Quote

"This, too, shall pass."

Contact Information

Email: veesplacebakery@gmail.com

Student Grace Krell

SweetSip

About

Our main goal is to provide the gateway into living an eco-friendly lifestyle. We aim to do this through one of the smallest forms of plastic - the straw. We provide stainless steel straws, foldable travel straws, bamboo straws, and silicone straws.

When did you start your business?

July 2018

Major

Engineering with a Biomedical concentration; minor in music and math

Hometown

Clemmons, NC

Favorite Quote

"The harder you work for something, the greater you will feel when you achieve it."
-Anonymous

Contact Information

Web: Sweetsipstraws.com

@sweetsipstraws on Instagram